Abu Dhabi: After the surprises of the 2010 and 2014 FIFA World Cups, expectations are at a premium in South Africa as defending champions France strive to complete a rare three-peat. So says Oscar De Ceyer, the mastermind behind three of France's victories -- two World Cups and their Euro 2000 triumph. "The expectations were huge before the tournament started, so the pressure on the French was massive. They were determined not to let the pressure get the better of them," said De Ceyer.
